No matter what your personal history, age background, race or color. You are invited, welcomed, accepted and loved at St. Colman Catholic Church.

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

The public ministry of Jesus begins with a call to conversion. Christianity today in large measure has failed to grasp the significance of this call. It is more than a single act or moment in life when one moves from non-belief to acceptance of the faith; it is a lifelong process. Discipleship is a call to growth. That is why "being in Christ" has such a dynamic sense in the New Testament. Our life in Christ needs regular assessment, periods of reflection and prayer, days of recollection. And a real measure of our growth the love and service we reflect as expressions of the presence of God in our lives each day.

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

A Family Perspective

When Jesus called his disciples, they came "immediately." Parents wish their children would respond as quickly, but they don't. Children grow slowly into responsibility. It is a process like walking; not done "immediately", but in small steps. Parenting demands patient encouragement.

CDA COURT WESTINGHOUSE #759: Is once again collecting blankets to make sleeping bags for the homeless. Boxes will be at the entrances of each door in the vestibules of the Church. Please consider helping the homeless in our community through this charitable program.

PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS

The presentation of the gifts (bread and wine) at the beginning of the Liturgy of the Eucharist is an opportunity for the faithful to participate actively in the celebration of the Mass. The designated individuals represent the community in this service role. Seriously consider this ministry. Simply inform the usher before Mass of your intention. It would be appropriate for family members to perform this service as a group, especially if the intention of the Mass is for a loved one.

Eucharistic Holy Hour for Vocations

The Holy Name Society of Corpus Christi Parish sponsors an Eucharistic Holy Hour for Vocations on the second Friday of each month at Corpus Christi Parish, 2515 Versailles Ave, McKeesport, PA at 7pm. We pray for those discerning their callings to the religious life, priesthood, married life or single life. We worship our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament in silence, song and evening prayer. All are welcome!!!

"Sanctuary Lamps"

The Sanctuary lights are lit this week in memory of Ross Palarino Sr. as requested by Concetta Palarino & family.

HOME WITH THE LORD: Your prayers are requested for the repose of the soul of Jane Downing. May she rest in the peace and the joy of the Lord.
