SEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

All three readings today have us ponder the same thing: holiness. Be holy, for I the Lord your God, am holy (Leviticus). The Temple of God, which you are, is holy (1 Cotinthians). So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect (Matthew). We are called to holiness. Ultimately, being holy means conforming our lives to God whom is holy. Being holy is about a relationship, not about goodness alone. When we think about holiness we often think of individuals such as the saints. The concept of scriptural holiness, however, is bigger than being a saint. Not only is an individual called to holiness, the entire community is called to holiness. To be holy we must have a foot in each camp: we must concern ourselves not only with our individual relationship with God, but also with our relationship with the believers and that community's relationship with God. Holiness is found in following the purpose of Jesus' life: preaching, death and resurrection. All was done to reunite us with the Father. We might ponder how we can achieve this holiness and how we can be better conformed to the person of Christ and being people together around God's table of peace.

Thoughts to reflect on and share: "God is the pure and perfect example of love. While our love can never be as perfect as His, we can be His temple when we love as best we can with all of our own imperfections." Deacon Herb Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

CONFIRMATION ~ Bishop William Waltersheid will be celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation for the eighth grade students from St. Colman, St. Maurice, St. John Fisher, Good Shepherd, Word of God and Madonna del Costello Parishes on Monday, April 24th at 7pm at St. Maurice Parish. Any parishioners who have not completed their Sacraments of Initiation and wish to participate, please contact the parish office at 412-823-2564. Confirmation is a prerequisite for marriage in the Catholic Church.

BAPTISM CLASSES & DATES OF CELEBRATION

The next Baptism classes are scheduled for Saturday, March 4th and Saturday, June 3rd at 11am in the school cafeteria meeting room. Please note this date if you anticipate a baptism in the next few months. BLESSING FOR EXPECTANT MOTHERS: The Church reminds us of the respect for human life at all levels from conception until death. The miracle of birth is part of God's continuing work of creation. The beauty and dignity of human life is especially evident in that experience. A blessing will be offered to expectant mothers on the weekend of February 25/26th after each of the Masses. Please remain in church at the conclusion of the liturgy.

This program supports the various programs of the diocese which benefit every parish and helps maintain the important offices of the diocese. The stewardship message is that through your generous offering in this campaign, both our parish and the diocese as a whole can accomplish what we cannot do separately. You should receive a letter and a pledge card in the mail this week. We need your generous support in this effort. Our assessment this year is $77,342. If you do not receive this mailing, please call the rectory office at 412-823-2564. Unfortunately we failed to reach our assessment for the 2016 campaign, therefore we must make up the difference from our general funds. Again, we need the support of all. Thank you.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE MINISTRY (SAM)

One way to counter the epidemic of heroin and cocaine addiction is to increase our prayers for those suffering from addiction of controlled substances as well as praying for their families. To that end, Deacon Tim Noca of St. John the Baptist Parish, Plum, has initiated Substance Abuse Ministry (SAM) with parish representatives of different parishes of Vicariate Two, District One on the team. Part of this ministry is for a church to host a holy hour before the Blessed Sacrament to pray for those suffering from addictions. North American Martyrs Church, 2526 Haymaker Road, Monroeville, regularly sponsors a holy hour from 7-8pm on the second Monday of the month. Please join us by coming to the holy hour on Monday, March 13th from 7-8pm. There will be no holy hour at North American Martyrs on the Monday of Holy Week, April 10th due to the Communal Penance service at NAM Church at 7pm. The holy hour vigil will continue on the second Monday on May, which is May 8.

North American Martyrs' Parish Fellowship Ministry is sponsoring an Italian Buffet Dinner on Saturday, February 25th in DeLuca Hall after the 4pm Mass. Tickets are $8/Adult; $4/Child 4-10 years of age. Tickets will be sold after all masses this weekend or call Mary Ellen Samek at 412-889-2278. No tickets will be sold at the door. Menu includes Pasta, Vegetable Lasagna, Stuffed Shells, Meat Balls, Hot Sausage, Salad and Dessert. Come for good food and fellowship! Everyone is welcome.

PRAYER FOR THE UNBORN

Heavenly Father, You created us in Your own image, and You desire that not even the least among us should perish. In Your love for us, You entrusted your only Son to the Holy Virgin Mary. Now in Your love, protect against the wickedness of the devil, those little ones to whom You have given the gift of life. I ask that You help reach all those considering abortion, and by Your grace, changing their hearts and protect the unborn, and bless all efforts to protect human life from capital punishment, war, starvation, euthanasia, and all other threats to the Dignity of Life from Conception to Natural Death
