THE SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

There are few things in life that mean as much to us as trust. We all want to find people we can trust. We also want a God we can trust, because as important as our material and physical needs are, even more important are those needs we call our spiritual needs. When life itself threatens to overwhelm us, we need the comfort and assurance that can only come from a God who has our best interests at heart. We need to trust in a God who knows us down to the last hair on our head, and who wants nothing, absolutely nothing, but the best for us. When everything around us seems to be falling apart, the challenge that faith puts before us is to trust that God will be there for us. For Jesus the Transfiguration (Gospel today) was a moment of trust in the will of his Father. That is the trust we must pray for also.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS will be celebrated every Friday during Lent at 7:00pm.

THE MASS IS ENDED, NOW GO AND LIVE IT:

Fr. Dennis Gill

*The revised English translation of the Roman Missal offers us a renewed opportunity to enter more fully into the mystery the Liturgy celebrates through texts filled with biblical and theological images and ideas. Join us for an outstanding evening with Fr. Dennis Gill as we explore together this wonderful gift of Liturgy. Fr. Gill is currently the Director of the Office for Divine Worship, Archdiocese of Philadelphia. He completed his graduate studies in Sacred Liturgy at the Catholic University of America, Washington DC and Pontifical Liturgical Institute of St. Anselmo, in Rome. Fr. Gill has served as the Director of Liturgy at the Pontifical North American College in Vatican City State. He continues to serve as professor of Sacred Liturgy at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary and lectures on Sacred Liturgy throughout the country. He most recently published a book, Music in Catholic Liturgy: A Pastoral and Theological Companion to Sing to the Lord.

Continuing education credit is available for priests, deacons and catechists. The lecture is free - all are welcome to attend. Bring a friend.
