SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

The first several years in Jerusalem were exciting times. Even with Jesus' death in that city, the apostles soon saw the energizing efforts of the Spirit at work. As prayerful and dedicated people, striving to live and grow in the teaching of their Master, the first believers were an example to all. Their numbers were constantly increasing. Fervor and enthusiasm ran high. Within the church, there have always been new beginnings, something we have experienced in our lifetime. If our faith is built like the house on solid ground, we can persevere and succeed. Our faith allows us to see and believe as the Gospel story relates today. This is a great gift as we meet the challenges of each day. The Easter mystery reminds us that Jesus is alive and walks with us on our journey of faith. Our fervor and enthusiasm should reflect that belief.

EASTER THANKS to those who contributed their time, talent and energy to provide a fitting celebration to our Easter: our music ministers, choir, those who served at the altar, those who offered their time and talents decorating the church and all who donated generously to the support of the parish.

As Christians we are called to perform the Corporal Works of Mercy. One of which is taking care of each other. A young mother of five in our parish is experiencing serious medical problems. We are reaching out to our faith community for support of this family. Any donations monetary, or otherwise would be greatly appreciated. North American Martyrs Church has set up a fund in her name. Checks can be made out to the Amy Andrews Fund and brought to the rectory. Thank you in advance.

CAN A DEACON BE MARRIED?

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS , by Herb Riley

Yes, a deacon can be married, provided that he is married before he begins his formal preparation work for the diaconate. However, should a deacon's wife pass away, he is not permitted to remarry. Also, if a deacon candidate is single when he enters the preparatory program, he is then no longer permitted to marry, and must take a vow of celibacy. Next time, I will answer the question, "Are Deacons Paid for Their Work?"

 THE CONFRATERNITY OF THE ROSARY will hold their Spring Luncheon on Wednesday, May 4th @ 12:30pm at Palmieri's Restaurant. Orders will be taken off the menu. Please call Dorothy Duchai @412-823-7910 to make your reservations.
