THE TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In the first reading the house of David and Jerusalem look upon an unknown sufferer as they grieve over the one they have pierced. Suffering is a central topic of the Gospel, as well as Jesus turns his disciples away from an exalted notion of Messiah to one suffering. It is a pain which they themselves will one day endure as well. Christ bore his cross in obedience to the Father for love of the world. It is interesting that the destiny of Jesus' followers encompasses the same fate. Cross bearing for Jesus involved many things, among them the hardships of his earthly ministry, yet he gave his all "for the sheep without a shepherd." In our lives we don't have to seek the cross. It will find us. Our response is important. Can we accept it in faith? Illness, poverty, financial loss, rejection, giving of ourselves for others-the cross is certain to come in one way or another. We pray for the grace to bear it with love. Cross bearing is woven into the fabric of discipleship but Jesus has shown us the way through each cross to life, resurrection and resolve.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time: A Family Perspective

Today's gospel teaches personal sacrifice is the key to successful parenting. If we try to "save your life you will lose it." The more we give of our self, the more rewarding is our relationship with our children.. That's the secret: the more you give, the more you get.

CATHOLIC FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM

Bishop Zubik will celebrate Holy Mass at 10am on Thursday, July 4th, at St. Mary of Mercy, Downtown, to close this year's Fortnight for Freedom. Light refreshments will be served afterward in Lawless Hall. All are welcome.

PRAYER FOR RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

*Almighty God, Father of all nations,
for freedom You have set us free
in Christ Jesus (Galatians 5:1)*

*We praise and bless You
for the gift of religious liberty,
the foundation of human rights,
justice, and the common good.*

*Grant to our leaders the wisdom
to protect and promote our liberties;
by Your grace
may we have the courage to defend them,
for ourselves and for all those who live in this blessed land.*

*We ask this through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, our patroness,
and in the name of Your Son,
our Lord Jesus Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
with Whom You live and reign,
one God, forever and ever.*

AMEN
