THIRTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Jesus set out to save people, not to win arguments. Today, his compassionate words and actions reveal the deepest truth of his life and of God's life too. For God did not make death or desire the destruction of the living. The way of compassion so clearly explained in the Book of Wisdom is reflected in the generous companionship of Jesus as he walks with desperate Jairus and is approached by an equally desperate woman who pushes herself forward in such an unseemingly manner. Jesus does not stand on ceremony; he does not claim special privileges. He leans toward Jairus, toward the woman, toward the child. This is how he wins hearts. Paul in the second reading encourages the Corinthians to abound in charity and demonstrate compassion in their lives. Both Jesus and Paul challenge us today to reflect compassion and charity in our lives especially in the unexpected opportunities that come our way.

Thoughts to reflect on and share: "Until we stop seeing the differences in each other and begin to recognize the one most significant trait that all of us share, namely, that we are all made in the same image and likeness of our Creator, our world and our communities will never know the kind of peace that God wants us to have." Deacon Herb Follow Deacon Herb on FaceBook.

Your Abundance at the Present Time Should Supply Their Needs, so that Their Abundance May also Supply Your Needs. — These words, taken from today's reading, highlight the true nature of the On Mission for The Church Alive! initiative. All of us, individually and in our parishes, are abundantly gifted. We each bring to the table a variety of unique characteristics and talents that are used to spread the Good News of the Gospel and bring Christ to others. As our parishes prepare to come together as parish groupings, and as we seek to form and strengthen relationships with our sisters and brothers in the Church, the goal is not for these gifts to be trimmed away and wasted. Instead, we are called to work to unite the many ways we seek to do good in the world so that everyone, youth and adults of all ages, can be support in faith and in life. What can you do to help make your parish grouping The Church Alive!? What can others do to help make your parish grouping The Church Alive!? Let us be willing to both give and receive to make our parishes on fire with the love and goodness of God.
