THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Some might reflect, the greater part of our waking hours goes into providing for ourselves and for others. In addition, we grow up with our attention riveted on succeeding. We want to make sure we have enough for ourselves and our children. But then the strong consumerism of our society forces our standard of living to an even higher level. It is all too easy to become entangled in the things that are "passing away." We don't think about the possibility of it all ending suddenly and earlier rather than later. Today's scriptures are a reminder to keep a balanced view. We cannot risk to lose ourselves in this world and forget nor neglect that "which is above." It also tells us to use wealth generously while we are alive rather than have people fight over it after we are gone. Without calling for a rigorous poverty, there is no doubting the fact that a simplicity of life keeps our vision clear. We want to be providers and take care of the concerns that God has entrusted to us. We have to work diligently. But always keep the future life before us so that when the day comes to "move on", we shall have prepared well.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time:
A Family Perspective

In today's gospel Jesus teaches us: "One's life does not consist of possessions." We spend so much time working to obtain more stuff; we don't have time for the people in our lives. What is enough? Are the words of Jesus, "You fool", meant for us?

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION
OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
