No matter what your personal history, age background, race or color. You are invited, welcomed, accepted and loved at St. Colman Catholic Church.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The new Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that we are committed to one another and that we are responsible for the other's salvation. All too often, we feel like our hands are full just getting ourselves and our loved ones to heaven. But there is no mistaking the message: love your neighbor as yourself and speak up against sin. One of the most difficult things to do in all of human experience is to confront a person directly who has done something wrong especially to us. It is so easy to avoid the issue, to rationalize or to complain to others. But there is something cleansing about confronting the wrong-doer. The human spirit feels relieved of a burden. That's why Jesus exhorts us, in this Sunday's gospel, go directly to the persons who have wronged us. Most individuals will be influenced to varying degrees by a challenge to their behavior and even have "second thoughts." to follow Jesus teaching requires great faith in the value of truth. It requires that we believe Jesus when he says "I am the Truth" and "the truth will set you free." What starts out as one of life's most difficult tasks may end up as one of life's most rewarding accomplishments.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Family Perspective

The key word in today's gospel is "listen." We cannot change another person; not alone, not with others and not with the whole Church. All we can do is state our position and "if he listens to you" then he/she can take the steps necessary to change themselves. Change comes from within.

BISHOP'S EDUCATION FUND COLLECTION

The annual Bishop's Education Fund Collection will be taken up on the weekend of September 13-14, 2014. Since the fund was established in 1995, more than $20.5 million has been raised. In the past 19 years, almost $11 million in assistance has been given to nearly 40,000 children from nearing every parish in the diocese. Many students in our Diocese want a Catholic school education, but can only do so with financial assistance. The Bishop's Education Fund makes such assistance available.
