THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

Today is the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. Several times throughout the year, we celebrate the dedication of this church or that church. This church is the Cathedral of Rome, officially called St. John Lateran Basilica. Many mistakenly think of the Basilica of Saint Peter in Rome as the pope's cathedral, but that is not so. This church, dating from the fourth century, is the seat of the bishop of Rome, currently Pope Francis. In every diocese, the cathedral is the symbol of unity of the local Church gathered around its bishop-its defender - and through him their unity with the other churches that form the Catholic Church. The bishop of Rome has the ministry of the charity and unity of the entire Church. His cathedral, therefore, is a symbol of much more than the Church of Rome. Whenever we celebrate the anniversary of the cathedral that is the mother of all others founded through the ages, we celebrate the Lord, who founded His Church, under the crozier of Peter and his successors and all the children of God, wherever they may live.

Sunday, November 9th

A Family Perspective

The bridesmaids in today's gospel were considered 'foolish' because they let their lamps go out. Don't be foolish. Pay attention to the small acts necessary to keep the flame alive in all your relationships

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

On Sunday, November 23rd, the Feast of Christ the King, there will be exposition of the Blessed Sacrament following the Noon Mass until the celebration of Benediction at 5PM. This is an opportunity to worship in a prayerful, reflective manner in the special presence of the Eucharist. Consider spending some quality time in prayer, spiritual reading or just meditating on God's love and continuing presence in your life.
