SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING

Jesus, in order to attain his kingdom, uses no earthly power or force. He came to testify to the truth. The truth is something that we must all discover in our own hearts. We understand that we all need to hear God's words and understand the meaning of Jesus' teachings. But we also need to bear witness to these things as well. It is on this point that living in the world is different from being of the world. We have been entrusted with custody of the world. How we care for this world bears the truth of our understanding and love of God. If we are of the world, we are caught up in the material wealth of the world. We are reluctant to share our resources because it is our own well-being that is of importance. Life in the kingdom is what Jesus promises us. We are called to walk away from the ways of the world in order that we might share in that ultimate gift. Take an honest look at how you live in this world. In truthfulness, is it the way you would live if Jesus were your next door neighbor.

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share: From Deacon Herb
"It's not our titles that define us or make us special, but what we do with them to benefit others that does. Are we putting our positions of influence to the best use to serve God and one another or to just serve ourselves?" Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE! Old lyrics to an old song: "For united we stand, divided we fall, and if our backs will ever be against the wall, we'll be together, you and I." Our backs aren't against the wall. But we face real challenges in growing the Church today-everything from practical parish finances to a world that seems indifferent. Maybe even callous. There are no easy solutions. But we know one thing: we've got to be united in our mission. We need to see the people that are On Mission with us. Together, you and I. To read more, check out "On Mission for The Church Alive!" on page 5 of this week's Pittsburgh Catholic and visit www.OnMissionChurchAlive.org.

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS: Mass will be celebrated on Thanksgiving Day at 10:00am (not the usual 8:30am) time.) Hopefully this will afford more parishioners the opportunity to begin the day of Thanksgiving in a prayerful manner. You are asked to bring non-perishable food items to the liturgy as a part of our weekly food bank effort.

SUPPORT CATHOLIC EDUCATION AT EAST CATHOLIC SCHOOL: In support of Catholic Education, East Catholic School is once again holding a lottery fundraiser. The raffle is based on the Big Four winning number from the 7 pm Pennsylvania Lottery Drawing held Monday thru Saturday during the month of December 2015. Each ticket costs $20 and East Catholic School makes $8 for each ticket sold. Tickets will be available in the rectory office. We ask that you buy or sell as many tickets as you can. Checks should be made payable to East Catholic School. All ticket stubs and money must be returned no later than November 30th.

GIVING TREE

Many neighborhoods in our surrounding areas are feeling the urgency of providing for their families at this difficult time. We at St. Colman have always come together to provide a gift for a needy child. This year we are asking you to please take a Name Tag from the tree and purchase a gift for a needy child. It is a great opportunity to manifest the teaching of Christ by giving. The tree will be set up this weekend. Please take a tag off the tree and sign your name and phone number next to the child's name and tag number in the book. All gifts must be returned to the rectory office by December 12th.

THANK YOU!

To the Parishioners of St. Colman. The Westinghouse Valley Food Pantry wishes to thank all who generously give to the Food Pantry each month. You are each blessings to the work we are doing here. We serve hundreds of patrons each month and we see first hand the appreciation on their faces. May God bless you all as we enter the holiday season and the end of 2015.

"Sanctuary Lamps"

The Sanctuary Lamps are lit this week in memory of Elizabeth Evancho as requested by Joe & children and Frank & Betty Sands as requested by David & Marsha Friez.

"THE INNOCENTS" -ARRIVING NOVEMBER 19TH St. Colman will be hosting a Pro-Life acrylic painting by Nikki Bruni, 40 Days For Life Coordinator. The painting will be displayed from November 19th-November 25th only. The purpose of this artwork is two-fold: First, it is to memorialize each human life by giving them a name. You will have the opportunity to name a child that was aborted by writing in the book that accompanies the painting. Secondly, this work is meant to help us recognize the tragedy of abortion. There are 2,366 tiny faces representing the lives ended by abortion in Pittsburgh in 2013. There are 14 gold squares in the backdrop that indicate the number of babies saved during this time. This painting was used because of the powerful way in which Jesus is depicted as the sacrificial victim while still an infant. The original is named by French artist William Bouguereau, "L'innocense". "The Innocents" will be located in the main vestibule of the church.

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas will be collecting hats, scarves, gloves and socks for the Red Door Missions through the end of November. The Red Door Missions is an organization that helps the homeless. These items can be new or renewed (gently worn). There will be bins set up in the vestibules of the church until the end of November. They will also be collecting blankets that will be made into sleeping bags for the homeless. These items can be placed into the same bins as the other items. We ask all who can to please find it in their hearts to help the homeless.

HOME WITH THE LORD: Your prayers are requested for the repose of the souls of Dominic Russo and Andrew Botti.. May they rest in the peace and the joy of the Lord.
